

CHURCH BULLETIN FOR November 29, 2020

ОГОЛОШЕННЯ

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome to the staff of the Ukrainian Embassy in Ottawa as they attend the Shrine today for the annual Holodomor commemoration. A Panakhyda will be celebrated on Sunday, November 29 after both liturgies in memory of those who died in the Ukrainian Holodomor of 1932-33.

The Parish welcomes St. Nicholas as he will come and visit us on December 6 and 20.

St. Theresa's Syro-Malabar parish has resumed their Sunday evening services in our church today, Sunday, November 22. Their liturgy starts at 4:30PM.

Coats for Kids is a Knights of Columbus program that gives new winter coats to underprivileged children in our community. This Sunday or in the next couple of weeks, please consider making a tax-deductible donation towards this endeavor. There will be donation envelopes available at the exit door of the Church. All cheques need to be payable to St. John the Baptist Parish. E-transfers should be marked "designated donation for Coats for Kids".

Camp St. Basil, the Basilian Children's Camp in Alberta, will have a virtual Christmas Camp December 27-31.

See next page for details.
